

Generate Group Genius is built on over thirty years of experience in communication, peak performance, dynamic organizational cultures, and I could go on. My work has always sought to answer certain questions: How can we be more intelligent together in an easeful way that doesn't suck the life out of us? That promotes resilience and enthusiasm and extraordinary ideas? How can we show up fully at work and then show up fully for our family and friends after work?

This training and executive coaching is the response to those key questions and it is a privilege to offer this to you. Truly. You are designed for success and I want to show you how to take full advantage of this birthright. You have the capacity right now to contribute enormous creativity, to be part of a team that puts leading-edge ideas into action.

Just imagine the power of this collective impact. I'm here to guide you.
